

Central MN Mental Health Center

Presents

Social Justice Perspective in Honoring Differences and Understanding Similarities

Presented by: Manijeh Daneshpour, Ph.D

Learning Objectives:

1. Be able to examine the interconnection between multiculturalism and social justice in providing psychotherapy.
2. Be able to explore and resolve many dilemmas related to providing multicultural psychotherapy.
3. Be able to examine and understand how we can solve our major existential dilemma about multicultural competency.

Manijeh Daneshpour, is the system wide director and professor of marriage and family therapy in the department of couple and family therapy at Alliant International University in Irvine, California and a licensed marriage and family therapist with over 20 years of academic, research, and clinical experience. She is from Iran and identifies herself as a third wave feminist. Dr. Daneshpour main areas of research, publications, and presentations have been centered on issues of multiculturalism, social justice, third wave feminism, and premarital and marital relationships.

See our website for more information on this upcoming training.

At the Tuscan Ballroom in the Midtown Square Mall, St. Cloud

When: October 25th

Session 1: 9:00am to 11:00am

or

Session 2: 12:00pm to 2:00pm

Central MN Mental Health Center

For questions, please contact: Steven Loos, Psy.D, LP

Email: sloos@cmmhc.com

Phone: 763-295-4001

Non-CMMHC attendees are encouraged to register at cmmhc.org using the "Conference Registration" link to guarantee your spot. The cost is $25.00 for non-CMMHC attendees, see our website for payment information.