

On Saturday, November 2, volunteers are needed at the Minneapolis airport to welcome home The Twin Cities Honor Flight that takes World War II and Korean War Veterans to Washington D.C. Volunteers are asked to arrive at in the baggage area of Terminal 2 (Humphrey Terminal), 7150 Humphrey Drive, Minneapolis by 10 p.m. The flight typically arrives about 10:20-10:30PM. No need to RSVP, just show up! Wear your company shirts, bring signs and lots of cheers!

The Twin Cities Honor Flight organization continues to look for World War II Veterans who have not been on a flight. Help pass the word if anyone knows of someone able to take the flight, at no cost to themselves. Note: There is a waiting list for Korean War Veterans however any World War II Veteran will be provided a seat.

More information and the form to register can be found:

<https://www.honorflighttwincities.org/>